

Frequently Asked Questions

- ❖ A Notice of Intent to provide home instruction shall be given on or before the date home instruction is to begin.
- ❖ Must I submit a notice of intent to homeschool every year? No.
Homeschool parents will now provide the county superintendent a one-time Notice of Intent. The NOI will remain in effect until the parent notifies the county superintendent upon termination of home instruction for a child who is of compulsory school attendance age OR upon establishing resident in a new county. At which time the parent shall notify the previous county superintendent and submit a new NOI to the superintendent of the new county of residence.
- ❖ What should a notice of intent include? The notice must include the name of the child, address and age of child, assurance that the child shall receive instruction in reading, language, mathematics, science and social studies and that the child shall be assessed annually.
- ❖ Must I submit evidence of the instructor's high school diploma or equivalent? Yes.
- ❖ Must I obtain an annual assessment every year? Yes. Homeschool parents must obtain an annual assessment for your child and must maintain a record for that assessment for three (3) years.
- ❖ Must I submit an assessment each year? Results of the required assessment must be submitted to the county superintendent for any child in grades 3, 5, 8 and 11. Those results must be submitted by June 30 for the year in which the assessment was administered.
- ❖ What should standardized achievement test include? Reading, Language, Math, Science, and Social Studies.
- ❖ Must I continue to register to homeschool a child 17-years-old or older in order for him/her to receive/keep a driver's license? Yes.
